The Simi Valley Education Foundation will be hosting a very special evening on Friday, January 25, 2008 at 6:00 p.m. the Grand Vista Hotel in Simi Valley to honor the Lew Roth Award recipients of 2007.

There are many dedicated people who make a real difference in our schools and in the opportunities for children. At this annual dinner individuals are recognized in six categories for extraordinary service to the students of the Simi Valley Unified School District.

The recipients of this year's Lew Roth Award are:

Management: Anthony Karch ~ Katherine Elementary School

Certificated: Debbie Dillon~ Simi Valley High School

Classified: Jean Gagne ~ Crestview Elementary School

Volunteer: Charlotte Maciel ~ Katherine Elementary School

Special Education: Liz Walbridge ~ Wood Ranch Elementary School

Lifetime Achievement: Patricia Hauser ~ Simi Valley Unified School District

The evening is designed for the recipients to celebrate with parents, teachers, administrators, and community members. The entire community is invited to share in this special evening. Cost is $55.00 per person and tickets can be purchased online at www.svef.org.

The Simi Valley Education Foundation provides additional resources to benefit students in Simi Valley's public schools. Through program development, fundraising, and collaboration, the Foundation seeks to strengthen our public schools and the education they provide for our children.
