Simi Education Foundation hands out scholarships

Eight local students receive funds

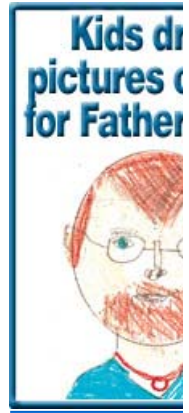

Each year, the Simi Valley Education Foundation grants five students $1,000 scholarships so that they can attend college, technical or vocational schools. One student is chosen from each of the four local high schools as well as one from Moorpark College.

The 2011 scholarship recipients are Emily McCanna, Apollo High School; Isabella Cherry, Royal High School; Amy Strickland, Santa Susana High School; Shannon Carmona, Simi High School; and Holly Houtman, Moorpark College.

In addition, the foundation awards three, two-year community college scholarships of $1,000 per year to students enrolling in a local community college each fall.

The endowment program was established to provide community college scholarships for students who cannot afford to fund their own education.

The 2011 endowment recipients are Dallin Jones, Apollo High School; Elora Bennett, Royal High School; and Jessica
