The Tokens to play at Santa Su

2011-04-08 / Schools

Concert benefits Education Foundation

The Simi Valley Education Foundation will host the first community sponsored event at the new Performing Arts Center at Santa Susana High School on Sun., April 17.

The Tokens will present benefit concerts at 3 and 6 p.m. at the school, 3570 Cochran Street, Simi Valley.

The five-member ensemble, famous for the songs "The Lion Sleeps Tonight" and "Tonight I Fell in Love," will sing a mix of rock, doo-wop and harmonies while performing on their own instruments and engaging the audience in a sing-along.

Tickets are $30 and can be purchased online at www.svef.org.

A 20 percent discount is offered to seniors age 65 and up. These tickets must be purchased by calling (877) 746-4543.

The Simi Valley Education Foundation is a nonprofit organization dedicated to providing additional resources to students in Simi Valley's public schools.
